

Dear fellow Homeowners member:

Yes, you have probably seen me jogging for 30 years (now a walk) on the Church track, but did you know that I have written a book, "Appalachian Boy" while "sheltering in place" since 2020. As a Korean War Veteran and president of the local chapter of the Knoxville Korean War Veteran's assoc., I was encouraged to write a book about serving over eight months in the front lines as a staff Sergeant in the 1st Cavalry Division in the Korean War

The details of this tour are still very vivid to me, and I aim to enrich the reader's experience with first hand descriptions of battle, my remarkable faith journey, and humorous events that will lift your spirits.

My editor is very excited about the book and vows it will be a good read. You will decide that. With the Holiday's coming, it will be an ideal gift. The book is priced at $19.75 for the hard-book cover version, however I wanted to introduce it first in my own community and neighborhood residents can receive a 25% discount and the net cost is $14.81 after writing in the letters LH (For Lake Hills)in the group discount code area shown below. This discount is unavailable in book stores.

Just fill in the purchaser info and code number below and send with your check or money order for $14.81 payable to Earl R. Ratledge, 3533 Raines Lane -Knoxville TN 37920.
