Suzan Bowman, 2021 Treasurer

Treasurer's Report APPROVED.

Dogwood Trail Discussion:

President Holli began the discussion by asking for volunteers to help make bows as many more are needed since bows will be made available by the Garden Club for residents living on the Dogwood Trail. Ann Graf agreed to gather a committee together to take on the distribution and making of bows. John Bradley suggested inviting those who are not members of the Garden Club, but live in the neighborhood, to also help.

HOA Announcements:

Suzan Bowman announced the HOA will be meeting on January 25 and Vickie Baumgardner, Executive Director of the Dogwood Arts Festival, will be the featured guest speaker.

It was announced that C.L. Overman and Kathy Proctor are working on a project for banners to be placed at the Montlake entrance during the Dogwood Arts Festival to recognize Lakemoor Hills as the featured trail. A question was raised about the absence of greenery in the roundabouts. Kathy Proctor agreed to contact Blalock's about planting schedule.

Holli announced that the Churches and Businesses along Alcoa Highway are in discussion with the County about temporary/permanent signage.

Garden Club Nominating Committee:

President Holli announced that Cindy McLaughlin has assembled a nominating committee and would appreciate suggestions.

Suzan Bowman announced next month's program:

Marsha Lehman will present "How to Build a Raised Bed Garden."

President Holli adjourned the meeting.
