Standing Committee Reports: truncated due to festivities

Fundraising:

Suzan Bowman reported that the profits from the sale of pecans was $1,319.60 and from sale of cookbooks $48.00.

Tanya Copeland reported that the sale of Mailbox Toppers was $1,420.00 and that there were no related expenses this year. John Bradley added that two toppers were donated to Racheff House and Gardens for their Greens Tea sale.

Civics:

Linda Haynes reported that the tree that we offered to the Fantasy of Trees fundraiser for East Tennessee Children's Hospital was sold for $350.00.

She then moved that we repeat this next year and Barbara Taylor seconded. Motion was approved.

Linda Haynes noted that the club's donation of $3,000.00 to the Lake Hills Presbyterian Church "Pave It Forward" repaving of the walking path used by our entire community was received and the paving will begin in April 2023.

While there was no walk-in business, Linda Haynes noted that our garden club's book club is happy to have more members and to email her for more information.

Communications:

John Bradley noted that our Facebook site is not yet confined to members-only but that remains as a goal. The process of controlling access has been taken on by Kathy Proctor and Randy Kerns.

Treasurer's Report:

In Dawn Thomas' absence John Bradley reported. Sue Humble moved to approve. It was seconded by Gina Bond and approved.

Adjournment:

Moira Hutchins-Fuhr moved to adjourn. It was seconded by Jean Bonarek and approved. The meeting was adjourned by John Bradley.

Program:

In lieu of a program, the assembled enjoyed a Potluck Holiday Luncheon and Gift Exchange.
